

ATLANTIC INSURANCE

Nicosia, 8 August 2025

ANNOUNCEMENT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Securities and Cyprus Stock Exchange Laws and Regulations, Atlantic Insurance hereby informs investors that the recent fires in Limassol District have caused damage to a number of residential properties insured by the Company.

Although it is still too early to determine the full financial impact, the Management estimates that the total amount of compensation will amount to €1.50 million and the net cost after deducting the reinsurance share to approximately €650,000. The final financial cost will be determined once the assessment of the damage and claims has been completed and provided that no unforeseen additional developments arise.

Yours,

Emilios Pyrishis
Chairman
